LIVE CLASSES

There are many costs associated with attending in-person daily classes as far as high tuition cost, campus boarding, transportation cost, parking, etc. and your financial situation is important to consider during these times. In contrast, our online learning gives you the flexibility to control your own schedule at more than half the price. On another note, we believe online learning also increases self-discipline and your ability to work hard independently, without supervision. This is something that will help set you apart in the business world as discipline is what leads to success. We encourage all our Full Time Online Graduates to attend our Graduation Celebration at the end of the year.
